FORBIDDEN PLEASURE

Craft wheat beer made following a recipe that Bavarian (Germany) master brewers preserved for centuries, when this grain was reserved exclusively for making bread. Known as Weißbier, or white beer, it stands out for its murky appearance and its slightly sweet flavour. A unique beer, craved for years, that today we can again enjoy in all its splendour.

Velvety golden-coloured, with a high-foam, smooth, spongy crown. Nice, warm aroma recalling bread and grain, with a light fruity touch of banana. In mouth, its intense, round flavour is highlighted by a slightly sweet, very refreshing character.
